

GA- 2304

GORMAN-DRENNER HOUSE - 1906 - 200 Montrose Avenue, Catonsville. Georgian Revival house with original plans by Joseph Evans Sperry. Built for William H. Gorman but for many years leased to Dr. John Elder, inventor and treasurer at Crown Cork & Seal. He did engineering work in Cairo and on the Burman Road. Also wrote three religious books. J. House notable for Palladian window and for its interior mouldings. Extensively restored in 1983.

BA-2304
 Gorman-Drenner House
 200 Montrose Avenue, Catonsville
 Baltimore West quadrangle

Google Earth image, c. 2007

Tax Map 100, p. 394 (now p. 957)

